ABOUT JORDAN

Jordan's mission is to make a meaningful difference for those who deserve better.

Jordan strives to understand the human condition and what makes us human – our experiences, emotions and exasperations.

Jordan advocates with conviction, compassion and comprehensive, end-to-end thinking.

Significant Civil Matters:-

- HC/S 697/2018: In an ongoing matter, acting for a sports goods company in a claim against a former director for an alleged complex fraudulent scheme resulting in the misappropriation of approximately SGD 3.5 million from the company. The case also raises an interesting legal issue as to whether the company is bound by a matrimonial settlement agreement between the defendant and another director of the company.
- Adcrop Pte Ltd v Gokul Vegetarian Restaurant and Café Pte Ltd [2023] SGHC 152: On behalf of a shareholder, successfully resisting the attempted winding up of company on the novel basis that the winding up application was part of a conspiracy to wrest control of an iconic Indian vegetarian business. Advising the client in connection with corporate governance and minority oppression disputes with the other director and 50% shareholder.
- DC/DC 109/2022: Secured a settlement agreement for the Plaintiff in a claim involving negligence.
- HC/OA 388/2022: Secured a committal order against the Defendants.

Significant Criminal Matters:-

- HC/CC 56/2023: Representing the Accused in relation to sexual assault involving penetration.
- SC-908485-2020: Secured a discharge amounting to an acquittal for the Accused's corruption charges, midway through trial.
- EXT-900001-2024: Representing the Fugitive in relation to extradition to the United States for involvement in an alleged botnet scheme.
- SC-902852-2022: Represented the Accused at a Plead Guilty mention in relation to criminal intimidation and computer misuse charges.
